DECORATION

Indulgence

Time to have some fun!

BIJOU BOX

Only a jewellery designer could have dreamt up such an exquisite container in which to store and showcase gems. Made of solid walnut and finished by hand, Saskia Diez' stackable trays display jewellery in concentric circles, making it easy to see and choose what to wear.

'AC02 Jewel' walnut jewellery case by Saskia Diez for £15, £588, Viaduct (020 7278 8456; viaduct.co.uk)

SHELF LIFE

Do it now! When every inch counts, opt for one of the growing range of storage beds, such as 'Space', from £225, The Sleep Room (thesleeproom.com).

HOOKED ON YOU

Your accessories, bathrobes and towels will be much better off when dangling from one of these cute hooks: the elegant 'Ribbon' by Akiko Kuwahata, £52 for two (kuwahata.dk); or colour-dipped 'Talking Heads' by Sebastian Bergne for Eno, £54 for a set of four, Haus (hauslondon.com).

STACK 'EM HIGH

Muji has done it again. The Zen master of storage solutions has augmented its ever-popular range with a freestanding oak modular system. Using any combination of shelf and drawer variations, you can build vertically or horizontally – or both – to fit your space and storage needs.

Modular oak shelves and drawers, from £85 for a drawer module, Muji (020 7323 2206; muji.com)
