

spanish

furniture, textiles, lighting

38

autumn 20

In

Valencia n

The power

Company p

Black and white

Urquiola's Nub chairs for monochrome interiors

Top left: Crack chairs and table by Serra & DeLaRocha for Concepta Top right: Francesc Rifé's Cuk rug for Now Carpets Above left: Green chair by Estudio Mariscal for Mobles 114 is made from recycled material and is 100 per cent recyclable Above centre: Nub chair by Patricia Urquiola for Andreu World Above: moulded oak Laclásica chair by Jesús Gasca for Stua

Above right: Simone sofa by Emiliana Design Studio for Joquer Above: Rolanda floor lamp by Christophe Mathieu for Bover Below: Apple table-bottle light by Tomás Alonso

PHOTO: LAURA BRINKMANN, NARITA ESTUDIO

LET THERE BE LIGHT

Tokyo Designers Week (1-6 November) is one of the top international design events. Spanish design always has a strong presence and this year ICEX, Spain's foreign trade organisation, presented an exhibition at the Spanish Embassy called Spain A Light. Designed and curated by Stone Designs, it showcased 116 contemporary pieces by leading designers and manufacturers, including: Mario Ruiz; BLux; Vibia; Luis Eslava; Tomás Alonso; Santa & Cole; Almerich; Capdell; Gabriel Teixidó; Vondom; Ziru; Stua; Metalarte, and Joquer.